Play the video to see examples of how children are learning about feelings and relationships for ages 48 months (4 years) to 60 months (5 years) followed by a group discussion by parents. Why are toddlers aggressive? Shocking as it may be to you (and onlookers), aggressive behavior is a normal part of your toddler's development. Emerging language skills, a fierce desire to become independent, and undeveloped impulse control all make children this age prime candidates for getting physical. "Some degree of hitting and biting is completely normal for a toddler," says Nadine Block ...
