GO-SHIP brings together scientists with interests in physical oceanography, the carbon cycle, marine biogeochemistry and ecosystems, and other users and collectors of hydrographic data to develop a globally coordinated network of sustained hydrographic sections as part of the global ocean/climate observing system. In the end of January I had the pleasure to visit Singapore to attend two events on maritime security in Southeast Asia organised by the Maritime Security Programme of RSIS. The first event was a strategic review and an outlook into the prospective developments in 2019. What's New? In 2017, BOEM saw fourteen environmental studies completed in support of the Renewable Energy Program along the Atlantic coast. These studies include regional surveys, tracking birds and bats, and improved survey methods. CalCOFI conducts seasonal oceanographic cruises off California four times a year: winter, spring, summer, & fall. Scripps Institution of Oceanography (SIO), National Oceanic & Atmospheric Administration (NOAA), California Department of Fish & Wildlife (CDFW), and affiliate project scientists measure physical, chemical, and biological properties of the ocean off Southern & Central California at ...
